

ARIZONA INDIAN COUNTRY – MAJOR TRIBAL LANDS

For Phoenix Field Office reference: Arizona has extensive Indian Country where federal jurisdiction applies.

Tribe/Nation	Location
Navajo Nation	Northeastern Arizona (largest reservation in U.S.)
Tohono O'odham Nation	Southern Arizona, near Tucson
Gila River Indian Community	South of Phoenix
Salt River Pima-Maricopa	East of Phoenix
Fort Apache Reservation	East-central Arizona
San Carlos Apache	East-central Arizona
Hopi Reservation	Northeastern Arizona (within Navajo Nation)
Colorado River Indian Tribes	Western Arizona
Ak-Chin Indian Community	South of Phoenix
Fort McDowell Yavapai Nation	Northeast of Phoenix
Fort Mojave	Northwestern Arizona
Pascua Yaqui	Near Tucson
Yavapai-Prescott	Near Prescott
Havasupai	Grand Canyon
Hualapai	Northwestern Arizona
Kaibab Paiute	Northern Arizona
Cocopah	Southwestern Arizona
Quechan (Fort Yuma)	Southwestern Arizona

Note: Arizona is NOT a Public Law 280 state. FBI has primary jurisdiction for major crimes on all Arizona tribal lands.

All statutory references are to Title 18 U.S.C. unless otherwise noted.

This guide reflects federal law as of 1997.